

I do not support any weakening of Wisconsin's No Call list. I have never heard of anyone begging to receive more telemarketing calls. The no call list should be expanded to prevent calls from non profit organizations as well as commercial business.